

"Happiness can be found even in the darkest of times if one only remembers to turn on the light." -J.K.

Rowling

Issue #1

New Teachers Invade BJHS

New teachers are flooding the hallways with their newfound excitement for teaching. We would like to give all of the new staff members a warm welcome to BJHS. Their arrival has helped our school run more smoothly and helped create a better learning environment for all of the students.. The new cleaning staff is always there to pick up our trash, sweep the floors, and much more.. The new teacher aides help the students of BJHS with all of our academic needs. The new coaches are doing a great job of helping the Brahmas exceed in the physical part of learning. Last but not least, the new teachers have stepped right in to BJHS to teach all of the students. So we want to give them all a big welcome to Bellville and hope they enjoy their time on our beautiful campus.

Sports

In the game against Tarkington, 7th grade B team put up a battle. Finishing the game with a score of 0-2, Tarkington. 7th grade A team followed up with a Bellville victory with an ending score of 28-7. 8th grade B team was ready at the first snap of the game. They immediately showed Tarkington what they were made of. Putting in 3 touchdowns as well as three 3 point conversions which ended the game 24-0 Bellville. 8th grade A team beat the Longhorns. They didn't hesitate to score. The ending score was 46-0 Bellville victory. Shout out to all of the teams for having perfect execution.

Player of the week, chosen by your Bullpen staff:

Logan Romero! Great job on defense against the Longhorns!

VOLLEYBALL STATS

The volleyball teams played On Monday, October 17 against Columbus at Columbus and had a clean sweep! Make sure to come watch the Brahmanettes play their next home game against LaGrange on Monday, October 31st. This will be the last game of the season So make sure to come out and support them!

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT BJH?

Mr. Symm gets wrapped from head to toe in toilet paper!

Mrs. Jones gets wrapped in toilet paper competition during the first pep-rally of the year!

EDITORS

Main Editor: Samantha Wiggins

Co-Editors: Emma Lischka & Lucas Grafe

The Trend

This week is lokai bracelet; they are all the rage and only 18$ on www.lokai.com. They are not only cute, but they also have a great meaning. The white bead is water from the Dead Sea which means, "even when you're on top, stay humble." The black bead means, "if you hit rock bottom, do not give up."

Facts

There is a Bunyan tree that has been officially under-arrest (and chained) for 100 years.

You can now buy a 180,000 square foot, seven story building that looks like a picnic basket for the small price of 5 million.

Scientists at a radio station spent over 20 years trying to figure out the source of some signal interference, turns out it was the staff room microwave.

There are miniature cows you can buy as pets depending on where you live.

There's a penguin in Japan that wears a penguin backpack and goes to the market to eat fish.

Mico headphones read your brain waves and select music based on your state of mind.

Mrs. Ponder is a teacher here at BJHS. She teaches 7th and 8th grade Science. An alternate career that she would pursue would be in the health industry such as a Physical Therapist. If she could go back 10 years from now she would try to be less stressed and a more positive person. The funniest moment in her teaching career was when she was walking down the hallway and she realized that a dryer sheet was sticking out of her pants leg. Her favorite part of being a Science teacher is Chemistry; because she can play Rap music. Mrs. Ponder is a kind teacher and a random act of kindness she would do would be to go overseas to Fallujah, Iraq and help the refugees there.

Colby Lange

We asked Colby a few questions and learned that his favorite teacher just so happens to be his own mother. He also admitted that he's an awful "secret keeper" who loves chocolate ice cream. And our last question revealed that if he could save anything in his room during a flood, it'd be his phone. You are the witness to a crime. A man has robbed a bank, but instead of keeping the money for himself, he donates it to a poor orphanage that can now afford to feed, clothe, and care for its children. You know who committed the crime. If you go to the the information, there's a good chance they will be returned to the lot of kids in need. What do you think? England. Good thing she would keep her

Mind Bender

Callie Fishbeck

The next student we interviewed was Callie. The first thing we asked her was if she could go anywhere, she would go to eyesight if she could only keep one sense. But for someone who enjoys reading on rainy days, I don't think anyone would've expected her celebrity crush to be the Texans, JJ Watt.

Jolie Holcomb

The last but certainly not least person we interviewed was Jolie. The first question asked was, if she won 100 million dollars what would she buy first. She said she would go to London. Also if she could ask one question to the president, it would be what his favorite color was. Her favorite cartoon character is Spongebob and her favorite color of grapes are red.

Comics

